RESPONSE TO NOTICE TO FILE MISSING PARTS OF NONPROVISIONAL APPLICATION

In response to the Notice of July 26, 2001, Applicant respectfully submits that the above-identified application is now in compliance with the required formalities of a nonprovisional application in view of the following amendments and remarks. The period for response has been extended as a result of the enclosed Petition for Extension of Time and requisite fee.

Declaration

Properly signed declarations in compliance with 37 CFR 1.63 are herein submitted. The required late filing fee or declaration surcharge as set forth in 37 CFR 1.16(e) of $130 is enclosed.

Sequence Listing

The Examiner has correctly indicated that SEQ ID NO : 73 incorrectly states a sequence length of 3 nucleotides while the disclosed sequence consists of 4 nucleotides. The Applicant has corrected this error in both the computer readable form and the paper form of the sequence listing. A corrected diskette and corresponding paper sequence listing are submitted herewith. This correction reflects the proper length of the originally disclosed sequence and does not constitute new matter.

As requested by the Examiner, Applicant has reviewed the Sequence Listing and has ensured that a corresponding explanation is presented in the <220> to <223> fields of each sequence that contains an Xaa nucleotide.

Statement of Identity of Computer Readable Form and Written Sequence Listing

The Examiner indicated that the application as filed did not contain a statement that the content of the sequence listing information recorded in computer readable form is identical to the written sequence listing as required. Applicant respectfully points out that the required statement was included on the application transmittal form. Applicant once again states that the content of the copy in computer readable form is identical to the content of the paper copy of the "Sequence Listing".

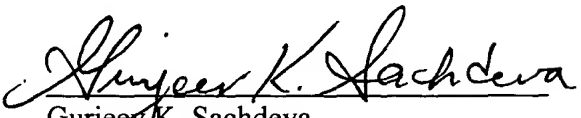

Except for the correction on SEQ ID NO : 73 discussed above, the new listing is identical to the originally disclosed listing. No new matter is presented in the new listing.

If in the opinion of the Examiner, a telephone conference would expedite the prosecution of the subject application, the Examiner is invited to call the undersigned at (415) 693-2120.
